MASSART FASHION SHOW THIS FRIDAY!

A few tickets are still available for the MassArt Junior and Sophomore Collections which will be presented as "Dream Diary" this coming Friday, May 12th in our Tower Auditorium with a reception starting at 7:00pm. General admission is $10.00. If you have a MassArt ID, it is only $5.00. This annual Fashion Show features the latest creations in design clothing for all ages. Professor Jean Shohan's Fashion Design department, here at MassArt, has produced many graduates who are now making a name for themselves in this field. Come get a sneak glimpse of what the fashion future holds by viewing the work of our "budding superstars" on campus! Tickets are going fast, as they do every year, so hurry. . .

POSTER FROM THE EXHIBITION OF "ARTISTS FOR MIDDLE-EAST PEACE" WHICH INCLUDES CALLIGRAPHY IN ENGLISH AND HEBREW BY MASSART'S DEAN OF UNDERGRADUATE STUDIES, ROY BROWN! SEE MIDDLE EAST RESTAURANT IN THE GALLERY LISTINGS FOR MORE INFO.

SPRING FOR THE ARTS

This Thursday, May 11th, amid the festive atmosphere of a grand exhibition, fine champagne, scrumptious food and lively dancing, the MassArt Foundation is going to give away all its art, furniture and pre-paid vacations. Are they crazy? Absolutely not. It's just their 1989-way of saying that they think the students, faculty, and alumni/ae of MassArt are terrific and deserve support. So they, and a lot of MassArt's friends, put together this party so that you, and a lot of your friends, can show your support too. And have a great time!

Each year the Foundation organizes a major event to promote the College and raise funds for scholarships and special projects. "Spring For the Arts" will begin at 6pm in MassArt's North Gallery where the first juried exhibition of work by twenty-five design alumni/ae will be shown. MASSART'S MASSARTS highlights the exceptional level of creative thinking, imagination and communication skills engendered by the College as seen through this representative sample of alumni/ae encompassing sixty years.

At 7:00pm, the party will move to the festively-decorated gymnasium (are the images flourishing?) for champagne, food and dancing to the music of Bob Ferrandini (another artist of broad range) and The Henchmen. And, that's when the give-away begins. Forty incredible prizes valued between $200 and $3,800! All donated by artists and other friends who believe, like you, that MassArt deserves everyone's support. So, come to "Spring For the Arts". Because the party will be great fun. And, above all, because we can't help support MassArt unless you spring for a ticket. But hurry! Tickets are limited. (We want the odds in our favor.) The cost is $100 for one ticket, $150.00 for two (but tax deductible, as allowed by law.) Put a spring in your step. Call 232-1555, ext. 233 today! You need not be present to win, only to have a great time!!

STAFF "IN THE NEWS"

Bernie D'Onofrio, 3DFA Glass Technician, was selected for a juried exhibition "Boston Now" at the Institute of Contemporary Art, Boston, which opened on May 4th. He also participated in "Masterworks of Contemporary Glass" at Christies in New York, and "Glassworks I" at the Joan Robey Gallery, in Denver, Colorado.

ALUMNI "IN THE NEWS"

Recently, WBCN Radio held a contest challenging listeners to "Show off your WBCN" and hundreds of entries poured in from fans eager to win the $25,000 prize. The winning entry was a Volkswagon Bug encrusted with rock castings sculpted by Charles Trainer, a resident of Newton. Trainer attended MassArt from 1977-1979. Entries were judged on originality, creativity, execution and visibility by a panel of 18 local celebrities, including Charles Laquidara and Mark Parenteau.

STUDENT "IN THE NEWS"

Elizabeth Bassett, a student at MassArt, has been selected to receive a $500.00 art materials award in recognition of outstanding artistic achievement through the Liquitex Art Materials Awards Program. Bassett was selected from more than 300 students from the US and Canada. This is the third consecutive year Binney and Smith has sponsored the Art Materials Awards Program which recognizes the accomplishments of fine art students.

ABOUT THE NEWSLETTER

The Massachusetts College of Art Newsletter aims to provide a communications/informational vehicle for the entire College community: students, faculty, alumni, and administration alike. We will run awards, appointments, events, exhibits and short communications, as well as a weekly calendar of events and meetings relevant to our College.

Weekly issues come out on Monday afternoon and can be picked up at: the Security Desks in the Tower and Longwood Buildings, the Student Center and in the Student Affairs Office(Tower, 6th floor.)

If you have something to share, please send it to the Student Affairs Office or the Newsletter Office(Tower, 11th floor) by the deadline - Monday at 5:00pm. If you are submitting dated material, your event must take place on or after the following Monday(seven days after the deadline.) The editor requests that all submissions be short: in the one paragraph range. Remember to include times, dates, places, and prices for all events. All submissions must include a contact name and phone number.

If you require information from back issues, please contact Jonathan Paleologos, Director of Public Information at x242.
